“Identity Protection”

By Rev. Scott Grotewold

A slight afternoon thunderstorm on the afternoon of August 8 caused a tree next to one of the picnic tables in the church’s backyard to fall. There wasn’t much wind. The trunk didn’t split; it was just rotted and broke—below ground level, actually. Church staff went out and inspected, only to find that when the tree fell, it landed on the lone car parked on that side of the lot.

We didn’t know the car’s owner. The license was from another county. It didn’t belong to anyone on staff or in the building at the time—including the construction workers in Wesley Hall kitchen. The car wasn’t parked in one of those designated spaces reserved for those who pay for a daytime parking space. Therefore, we concluded, it must be someone who needed to be on campus, couldn’t find a parking space near their desired location, saw a big parking lot with plenty of available spaces next to a church, and decided to take advantage. Happens all the time. All we could do is sit and wait for the owner to show.

A few hours later, a high school student from Waukee and his sister—who had been attending a camp on-campus—arrived, just as Dan Rekemeyer was working to remove the tree from the car and the church grounds. We expressed our sympathies: there was a small dent in the windshield molding that may have been caused by the tree’s fall. But we also explained that the church lot is not open and available public parking, but for those here for church business and events. “You mean, I’m going to get a ticket, too?” the student moaned. After the car was freed and he was assured that he would not incur a fine, he and his sister headed for home.

I’ve got to wonder: did the siblings do any theologizing done around this event on their way home? I mean: “I illegally park in a church lot for a few hours, and when I get back, a tree has fallen and it’s right on top of my car.” Even the insurance companies call this an “Act of God.”

The irony, of course, is that few if any of us at Collegiate United Methodist Church and Wesley Foundation would draw the conclusion that God was responsible or that there was any notion of “punishment” in the chain of events. The “cause-and-effect” of the accident had to do with rotted wood, a sudden downpour, and a slight wind—not a cosmological decision for justice and teaching a young man a lesson.

Throughout human history—including Judeo-Christian history and a number of churches today—“the gods” and even The One True God has been understood to “sit” “up there” on a “judgment seat” and dispense blessing or curse according to a thorough set of rules, but also sometimes just on a whim. In fact, what some of those who reject the existence of God are really rejecting is a supernatural, superhuman image of God that hasn’t developed since they were children.

That’s one of the blessings of Collegiate/Wesley—we’re interested in asking the bigger questions that will lead toward a more mature faith. It’s part of our identity.

What are the other important parts of our identity? What are the characteristics and passions of Collegiate/Wesley? What are the things we cherish as members and friends of Collegiate/Wesley that we want to protect as we move ahead through the twenty-first century? What are the tools we use to bring people to Christ and make disciples for the transformation of the world?

The pastors of Collegiate/Wesley have named five that we clearly see on a daily basis. These five “identities” will make up a Sunday morning sermon series for five weeks beginning September 18. We are naming the series, “Identity Protection.” The topics:

- “We are progressive” in our theology. We use historical/critical method for understanding and interpreting scripture, and we are not afraid of asking tough questions. (September 18)
- “We are committed to campus ministry.” This is a specific calling and responsibility, part of our founding purpose as a congregation. (September 25)
- “We are inclusive.” We are welcoming and pluralistic, with a heart toward building friendships, fellowship, and community. (October 2)
- “We are missional.” We are passionately concerned with acts of social justice and helping others, so that God’s realm might be established in the world and in our time. (October 9)
- “We are United Methodist.” We have a rich tradition of which we are rightly proud. Our founder, John Wesley, gave us a process by which to organize and follow Christ that is still valid today. (October 16)

On the afternoon of October 16, we have asked Rev. Jill Sanders, a Field Outreach Minister from the Conference Staff, to lead us through a process that will ask the questions, “What else are we? What are other things we cherish that make up the identity we wish to present to the world? What will that lead us to do in the next few years? What goals and objectives should we set?”

Please mark that afternoon on your calendars. The whole church is invited, as it will be the start of an important process for the future of Collegiate/Wesley. We hope you can be there!

“Journey’s is Coming...”

By Tim Gossett, Director of Discipleship

In October, our process of gathering information from the congregation members and friends about their ministry interests and commitments for the next year will begin. Called "Journeys," this tool enables you to reflect on both your existing ways of being in ministry as well as the directions in which you may be feeling "nudged" by God to serve.

If you have an idea for a new ministry that you believe Collegiate/Wesley should begin—or one you feel called to start—tell us about it. Send details to Tim Gossett, Director of Discipleship, at tim@cwames.org. Also, if you are currently serving as a team leader, cluster chair, or a leader of a group that meets regularly, please be sure to review the descriptions of your ministries from last year’s Journeys booklet by September 2 so that we can get everything updated in time.

Disciple Bible Study

Disciple Bible Study—Invest in yourself by participating in Disciple Bible Study: Becoming Disciples Through Bible Study, now known as Disciple 1. Using a good study Bible, the Disciple manual, video clips of well known progressive Bible scholars, and the discussion of your group, Disciple Bible Study can help you feel closer to God and closer to yourself. Disciple Bible Study shouldn’t work. It’s too much reading (over 60% of the Bible), it takes too much time each week, and it is a 34 week class. Yet it has been so successful that there is now Disciple 2, Disciple 3, Disciple 4, short term Disciple Classes, and Jesus in the Gospels. In addition to the Disciple 4 class (see page 1) we would like to know if there is interest in other Disciple classes. We need to know what times you can make work.

He's Back!

Tim Gossett named Director of Discipleship

For the third time in his career, Tim Gossett is joining the staff of Collegiate/Wesley, this time as half-time Director of Discipleship.

A native of Wisconsin, Tim is a graduate of United Methodist-related North Central, Naperville, IL, and United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH. He first joined C/W staff as the Campus Ministry Associate following his graduation from North Central in 1989; he served for three years until enrolling at United in 1992. During this time at C/W, Tim met his spouse, Kathryn, a student at ISU involved with Wesley Foundation.

Following his graduation from seminary with a Master in Religious Education degree, Tim took a position with a United Methodist Church in Plymouth, Michigan. In 1999, he and Kathryn returned to Ames so that Tim could take the full-time position of Director of Christian Education and Youth Ministries. After five years in the position, Tim requested to go to a less-than-full-time position so that he could pursue Christian education writing and editing and other projects. For the next four years (2004-2008), Tim served as Director of Christian Education and Adult Ministries. In the years since leaving staff completely in 2008, Tim has continued his writing and editing projects, worked for Iowa Religious Media Services in Des Moines, and, most recently, for the Emergency Residence Project in Ames.

In October of 2010, Tim and Kathryn became the parents of a son, Finnian Michael Jesse Gossett.

Tim will fill the vacancy left by Wil Ranney, who moved to Waverly in July. His primary responsibilities are:

- To work with the Reaching and Receiving Cluster toward the development and implementation of a community outreach strategy
- To develop and manage the volunteer recruitment efforts of the church and the time stewardship of its members and friends
- To maintain and enhance the online and social media presence of the church/foundation

Because of his abilities in the area, Tim will also work with the technology equipment and needs of the church.

Tim has a depth of biblical understanding and theology and is an excellent teacher. We are pleased to welcome him back to staff. Tim began his responsibilities on August 15.

Disciple Informational Meeting

Want more information about Disciple Bible Study? Come to an informational meeting on Sunday, August 28 in the Fireside Room at 9:45 am. We are hoping to have two Disciple classes this fall—Disciple 1 and Disciple 4. It is a major investment in yourself and your spiritual life, but you are worth it!

Disciple 1: Becoming Disciples Through Bible Study

Disciple 1: Becoming Disciples Through Bible Study uses readings at home, video clips from well known progressive Biblical scholars, and weekly discussion to help people learn about the Bible. It was developed to renew the United Methodist Church from the inside out starting with the Bible. It is not about easy answers—it’s about understanding more about the Bible and how to think critically about it. Participants need a workbook and a good study Bible. We are discussing making childcare available. For more information, contact Kathye Harrington-Taber.

Disciple 4: Under the Tree of Life

Disciple 4: The Tree of Life studies the Writings of the Old Testament (sometime called Wisdom literature), the Gospel of John and the Book of Revelation. You must have completed Disciple 1 in order to take this more in-depth class. The class will be meeting on Monday evenings in Room 44 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., starting on September 12. Feel free to bring a brown bag supper. West Steel is the facilitator. Books are available from the church office, from Kathye Harrington-Taber, or from West. Please let Kathye or West know if you are interested. Kathye’s e-mail is kathye@cwames.org and West’s e-mail is west\_steel@hotmail.com.

Sunday School for All Ages Starts September 11!

We have classes for children aged 2 through very experienced adults. Childcare is available for infants and toddlers. Adult classes vary from informal dropping in to serious learning. We saved a place for you! For more information, contact Rev. Kathye Harrington-Taber.

Children and Youth Sunday School Leader Trainings

There will be a Sunday School Leader Training on September 1 from 6:30 until 8:30 p.m. in the Fireside Room. Safe Sanctuary Training will be from 6:30 until 7:30 p.m. All volunteers who work with children and youth need to understand these guidelines to keep our children and youth safe while they are in our building. Childcare will be available if someone confirms that they need it. Please let Kathye know if you will be attending and if you need childcare. E-mail: kathye@cwames.org or call (515)292-6936 ext. 28.

7:30 – 8:30 p.m. is our Rotation Bible Lesson for those who work with our Elementary Workshop Rotation Model classes. We will cover the Biblical background of our Abraham’s unit that starts September 11. Childcare will be available if someone confirms that they will use it.

Youth Happenings

It’s time for our Youth Groups to start up again! Groups have regular meeting times in our buildings plus special activities other places. Are you on our youth e-mail lists? If not, please contact Kathye Harrington-Taber at kathye@cwames.org. Middle School Youth for 6th-8th graders will be meeting on Wednesday nights starting on Wednesday September 7. They meet from 7 to 8:15 p.m. in Room 211, the Middle School Youth Room. On September 11, we will be having ice cream sundaes are talking about Surviving Middle School. Our Senior High Youth will be meeting Sundays at 6:45 p.m. in Senior High Room on the third floor of our Annex.

Youth Needs: Volunteers to take turns helping with regular youth meetings. A Fearless Leader plus chaperones for September 17 Adventureland Day. (Tickets are $21 with a coupon because it’s Youth Day. The park will be open from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m.. Details for our group will be finalized when A Fearless Leader steps forward. I can get coupons for families to attend that day as well.) Also needed: ice cream and toppings for September 11 youth group activity.

Disaster Team

Within CUMC/WF, we have established a Disaster Response Team, a group of caring individuals whose primary mission is to provide assistance to disaster victims locally and regionally. Inherent in this mission is the team's commitment to help members of our own church community who are in difficult straits due to a natural disaster or personal crisis. If an emergency situation arises where you need a group of willing workers to address an immediate need (for example, a flooded basement or an unexpected medical need to move into an assisted living arrangement), please call the church office or one of the clergy. They can, in turn, contact the team if the need is one that the team can address.

New Member Coffee

Are you interested in joining the membership of Collegiate/Wesley—or, at least, learning more about this place, its history and programs? Come to our next New Member Coffee, September 18 from 2:00—4:00 p.m. in the Fireside Room.

You don't have to drink coffee at the event or have to become a member afterward, but it is an opportunity to meet with pastors and other staff members and have your questions answered. The coffee is also a time for staff to learn about you and how we can best connect you with this family of faith. If you need childcare you must register with the office by Wed., September 14. You don't have to register; simply show up!

Time for faithspring cookies again!

faithspring starts again in late August, and Barbara Munson will again be scheduling cookie bakers for the upcoming semester. So here's the call for homemade cookies for the Sundays this fall: August 28, September 4, 11, 18, 25, October 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, November 7, 14, 28, December 4 and 11.

Here's how it works. Typically, one or two cookie bakers sign up for each Sunday, and each one bakes 4 dozen cookies or bars of her/his choice, which are then delivered to the church office on Sunday morning. These goodies are then devoured by grateful students on Sunday evening at faithspring. Yum!

If you can help out, contact Barbara Munson at amesmunson@gmail.com or by phone at 451-5220. The students will thank you!

Save the Date—Mission Store

Oct. 30 is our Thanksgiving Ingathering including Mission Store.

Last year our contributions were our highest and were valued at $ 3,321. We can beat last year and we shall with your help! Think about contributing birthing kits, sewing kits, knitting or book kits. Think about contributing to Heifer International Project, Self Help International, P.E.T (transportation for victims of land mines, etc.) Think about contributing handmade items for auction or baked goods. Questions? Contact Carolyn Cornette at carolyncornette@msn.com or 292-4344.

Wanted – and Needed: Suited for Work Volunteers

A little bit about us:

We began in 2001 when Shirley Barnes had a vision to help those who were seeking employment. Through a voucher obtained from a social services agency, a person can get an interview outfit and—once employed—can return for additional work outfits.

That's when our mission begins . . .

Volunteers are needed to help staff our shop (located in the Collegiate/Wesley Annex, 130 South Sheldon).

Hours open: every Monday, 11:00 a.m.—1:00 p.m., every Thursday, 5:00—7:00 p.m. every 3rd Saturday, 11:00 a.m.—1:00 p.m.

We are looking for persons willing to commit to one two-hour shift per month, shared with another person who would be in the shop at the same time.

Men's and women's clothing donations are being accepted. Clothing should be suitable for work interviews or casual work environments. Clothing should be in-season, up-to-date, cleaned and pressed. Plus-size business clothing to keep pace with client demand is greatly appreciated.

Thank you for considering this. Please call Shirley Barnes at 232-6064 if you are interested.

Soup Supper

All Church Wednesday Night Fellowship Suppers will begin again on Wednesday, September 7 at 6:15 p.m. in Wesley Hall. This time is offered by members as a time for fellowship. Everyone is welcome—please join us! A contribution of a dish to share is optional, table service is provided. Everyone is invited to come for supper! Simply come to the table and be fed.

UMW Happenings

UMW Circle Meetings: September 8

Hope Circle will meet at 9:30 a.m. in the Fireside Room. The program will be presented by Bernadette Siefert. She will tell us about her recent experience in Haiti and the Ames city program, Beyond Welfare.

Faith Circle will meet at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Rosalie Amos (2861 Greensboro Circle), Charlotte Jamison will serve as the co hostess and Rosalie will present a program on her trip to India.

Grace Circle will meet at 6:30 p.m. in the Fireside Room. Hostesses are Ginny Anderson and Jeannie Weber. It is a salad supper, so everyone is to bring a small salad to share. Beverages, bread and butter, and a light dessert will be provided. Program will be planning for the upcoming year.

Holy Tearers—September 13 at 9:00 a.m. Please meet in room 123.

Contemporary Books—September 13 at 9:15 a.m. at the home of Sue Scott (1917 Northcrest Circle). Carolyn Jarnagin will co-host. The book for discussion will be The Help by Kathryn Stockett with Sally Wilson as the presenter.

Wesley Hall Kitchen Update

As many of you know, Wesley Hall kitchen has been undergoing a total renovation. Thanks to all who have worked on this project. We believe that we have (hopefully) taken care of our water problem in the kitchen and updated/upgraded the cabinets, countertops, etc. Please feel free to come take a look. As you look, please note that we still plan on replacing the old islands with new ones to match the cabinets and there are a number of other details yet to get wrapped up. We hope to get things done as soon as possible but it is available for use if needed.

Prayers

Thank you for sharing your prayers of joy and concern on the blue prayer cards each Sunday. Here are some joys and concerns you shared with us since the last issue of The Communicator.

Prayers of Thanksgiving

For wedding celebration for Chelsea & Kyle Scoggin, held in the sanctuary on 8/12.

For Phyllis & Bill Boon who celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary on 8/15.

For the birth of Sydney Kathryn, daughter of Kathy & Brent Uitermarkt and granddaughter of Kay Craig.

For Connie and Doug Bates on their 40th Anniversary on 8/22.

For Marilyn and Don Loupee as they move to Kansas, and for God's blessing in their new home and life. We will miss them!

Prayers of Concern

For all people in Somalia who are starving, especially the huge number of children.

For all those worried sick by the disruption in the world financial situation and how it will affect their future.

For Shirley Stow and family. Ken Stow's memorial service was held on Saturday, 8/13 at Stevens Chapel.

For Dick Parker, who has been hospitalized.

For the students as they begin a new school year and help new ISU students feel at home as they start a new part of their lives.

For a congregant's brother who just arrived from overseas for school. May his transition and time here be smooth and blessed.

That God provides a job to cope with some unexpected expenses that have come up for a congregant.

Hoping and praying that students have successful and fun-filled semester/school year.

For careful consideration of the school bond issue & that citizens of different views will be respectful of one another.

For the Des Moines police officer who was injured by a drunk driver outside of the State Fair.

ISU Marching Band members came over for Pancakes on the Patio on 8/17.

Rev. Jim Shirbroun cooking the pancakes on the grill.

Top—Kathy Mou, Lisa Larson, Connie Mou, Un Ian Lei sit together at the Welcome to Wesley picnic on 8/21.

Agnes Ansong, Kevin Foster, Steven Lauer, Ryan Jenkins enjoy the Welcome to Wesley Picnic on 8/21.

WF's first week of Lunch on the Landing was a roaring success. They had 22 students join them on 8/21!
